FP184 	Shem'on on the Graceful: Discourse on the Solitary Life The late seventh century in the Syrian Church saw the flourishing of several noted monastic writers, amongst them Shem'on, a monk of an abbey in south-west Iran. Few of his writings remain, but this homily has been preserved as a model of instruction on the solitary life.	trans. and introd. Mary Hansbury £5.00 ISBN: 978-0-7283-0301-0 2020 68 pages
FP185 	God Under my Roof: Celtic Songs and Blessings (revised and enlarged edition) In this collection of songs and blessings from the oral tradition of the Hebrides we are encouraged to make some of the prayers our own, to befriend God and the saints as we talk to them with unforced simplicity and candour.	Esther de Waal £5.00 ISBN: 978-0-7283-0302-7 R/2020 44 pages
FP186 	Journeying with the Jesus Prayer In this book, the author describes his journey with the Jesus Prayer, and the graces he has received on his way. He concludes with a celebration of what the Jesus Prayer has taught him, and is still teaching him, about the inner geography of the human heart.	James F. Wellington £6.00 ISBN: 978-0-7283-0031-6 2020 42 pages
FP187 	Poet of the Word: Re-reading Scripture with Ephraem the Syrian St Ephraem's layered approach to interpreting Scripture formed a tapestry of spiritual wisdom. This essay examines the principles that guided Ephraem's biblical interpretation and reveals why he is indeed a Poet of the Word.	Ælred Partridge OCD £6.50 ISBN: 978-0-7283-0303-4 2020 44 pages
FP188 	Identity and Ritual In two thought-provoking essays Canon Griffiths reminds us that our identity as Christians is expressed through our language and focussed by the patterns of liturgical ritual and in our historical urge to keep watch in prayer, the practice of 'vigil'.	Alan Griffiths £5.00 ISBN: 978-0-7283-0304-1 2021 44 pages
FP189 	River of the Spirit: The Spirituality of Simon Barrington-Ward In this study of the spirituality of one of the Anglican Church's great spiritual leaders the author considers the ways in which spirituality can represent our patterns of life with God that merge experience, prayer, community, theology and mission.	Andy Lord £6.00 ISBN: 978-0-7283-0312-6 May 2021 50 pages

	FP190 Prayer and the Struggle Against Evil None of us needs reminding that terrible situations exist and horrific events happen in the world around us. When we are confronted by such things, the word 'evil' comes readily to our lips. What is evil though, and how can we respond?	John Barton, James Ramsay, Daniel Lloyd, Alexander Ryrie £7.00 ISBN: 978-0-7283-0313-3 90 pages
	FP191 Dante's Spiritual Journey: A Reading of the Divine Comedy This book describes how Dante's journey through the three realms of his Divine Comedy maps onto the inner spiritual journey of all Christians. Dante's questions still concern us today and the text accompanies us on our quest to a greater understanding of the relationship between Christian faith and human life.	Tony Dickinson £5.00 ISBN: 978-0-7283-0321-8 42 pages
	FP192 Jesus the Undistorted Image of God The Eastern Orthodox description of Jesus as 'the undistorted image of God' is the author's favourite statement of belief about Jesus in relation to God and of the mysterious attractiveness of Jesus who draws everyone without distinction to God.	John Townroe £5.50 ISBN: 978-0-7283-0322-5 56 pages
	FP193 Our Deepest Desire: Prayer, Fasting & Almsgiving in the Writings of Augustine of Hippo This book presents the teaching of St Augustine of Hippo on prayer, fasting and almsgiving in historical and modern contexts, in a way that is accessible for any reader, for use not only during Lent, but for any time for the year as a reflective introduction to these ways of Christian living and their relevance today.	Sr Susan SLG £6.00 ISBN: 978-0-7283-0324-9 70 pages
	FP194 Lent With George Herbert The poetry of George Herbert has inspired the faith of countless Christians over the centuries. In this book Tony Dickinson takes eight of the poems from The Temple (1633), that tackle the themes of frailty and forgiveness, as the inspiration for a week-by-week set of meditations through Lent, from Ash Wednesday to Easter Day.	Tony Dickinson £6.00 ISBN: 978-0-7283-0327-0 84 pages
	FP195 Four Ways to the Cross Most of us live with one Passion story woven from incidents from the four Gospel accounts of the suffering and death of Jesus. In this essay, Tony Dickinson unravels these four narrative strands to reveal an understanding of the events that shape each one, and how each account is influenced by the Psalms	Tony Dickinson £6.00 ISBN: 978-0-7283-0330-0 74 pages
	FP196 Anselm of Canterbury, Teacher of Prayer This first study, by one of the leading scholars of early monastic life and thought, examines St Anselm's prayers as models and inspiration for mystics, saints and writers up to the present day	Sr Benedicta Ward SLG £6.00 ISBN: 978-0-7283-0333-1 72 pages
